The conference is hosted by the Law Faculty of the University of Amsterdam, which has a unique experiential learning programme (Amsterdam Law Practice) for master students, including The Amsterdam Law Clinics. The University of Amsterdam is located in the heart of Amsterdam and is easily accessible by public transport.

CONFERENCE ADDRESS

Nieuwe Achtergracht 166, Amsterdam
Roeterseiland Campus
Building A, 3rd floor

DIRECTIONS

Coming by train?

Whether your train arrives at Central Station or Amstel Station, you can take the metro to Weesperplein. From there, it's a 5-minute walk.

The airport (Amsterdam Schiphol International Airport) is also very well connected to Amsterdam city centre by regular train connections (e.g. to Amsterdam Centraal station).

→ From Central Station:

Take metro 51 (towards Isolatorweg), metro 53 (towards Gaasperplas) or metro 54 (towards Gein) and get off at Weesperplein: the third stop.

→ From Amstel Station:

Take metro 51, 52 or 53 (towards Central station) and get off at Weesperplein: the second stop.

→ From Metrostation Weesperplein (5 min walking):

- Go east on the Sarphatistraat,
- Take the first street to your left: Roetersstraat,
- Turn right directly after you pass Lebkov (coffeeplace),
- After you pass the Law Hub on your right-hand side, take the main entrance on the right,
- Once you're inside the building, you need to turn to the right to building A and take the elevator / stairs to the third floor where you will see a registration table for the conference.

If you have no other option than to come by car, please let us know in advance by sending an e-mail to amsterdamlawclinics@uva.nl

ACCOMODATION SUGGESTIONS

IMPORTANT: Please note that Amsterdam is one of the most important tourist cities in Europe. We therefore advice you to book your accommodation as early as possible, as places and favourable prices are hard to find, especially in July.
